AMEND Senate Joint Resolution No. 127*

by adding the following language at the end of the amendatory language of the first resolving clause:

If a woman seeking an abortion is prohibited by law from obtaining a legal abortion, then the state shall assume financial responsibility of the child born to that woman. The state shall be responsible for the child until the child is granted a degree from a post secondary educational institution or until the child reaches twenty-four (24) years of age, whichever occurs first.
